Social Insurance and Pension Scheme

The role of the Ministry of Labour, Social Affairs and Family of the Slovak Republic is to ensure a peaceful future for all. It designs legislation concerning social insurance and pensions to protect a large part of the population from the risks in life while also ensuring the just redistribution of pensions in the national economy.

The Section of Social Insurance and Pension Saving of the Ministry of Labour, Social Affairs and Family of the Slovak Republic administers a set of goals, instruments and methods which ensures income for the economically inactive population. The pension scheme concerns every one of us, but various benefits and obligations resulting from it are provided to individual groups of the population in various stages of their lives.
